

FOIAb3b

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO MISS LANSING

Allen Dulles, C.I.A. Chief
And Former City Resident, Notes Death.

Washington Bureau
Watertown Daily Times
National Press Bldg.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—

Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency here and one-time resident of Watertown, N. Y., today paid tribute to the late Miss Emma S. Lansing, who died at her home in Watertown last night.

To Mr. Dulles and his brother, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, also a boyhood resident of Watertown, Miss Lansing was affectionately known as "Aunt Emma."

Miss Lansing was a sister of the late Robert Lansing, secretary of state in President Wilson's cabinet and husband of the late Mrs. Eleanor Foster Lansing, who was an aunt of Allen W. and John Foster Dulles, as well as an aunt of Dr. Eleanor Lansing Dulles.

Mr. Dulles was notified of Miss Lansing's death by the Washington press bureau of the Watertown Daily Times. The Times also informed the state department, through whom news of her death was relayed to Secretary of State Dulles, now in Paris to attend a meeting of NATO.

Following is Mr. Dulles' tribute to Miss Lansing: "I was deeply distressed to hear this morning of the death of Miss Emma Lansing, 'Aunt Emma,' as she has always been to me since the early days of my childhood in Watertown, N. Y.

"Miss Emma Lansing throughout her entire life, has taken the keenest interest, both in international affairs and in working for the best interests of her own home community particularly through church and social service.

"Her life has been dedicated to helping others, and her passing is a great loss to her many devoted relatives and friends."

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

The Dulles family lived in Watertown during the time that the late Rev. Dr. Allen Macy Dulles, father of Secretary of State Dulles, Allen W. Dulles and Dr. Eleanor L. Dulles, was pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Robert Lansing, the former Eleanor Foster, was a sister of the mother of John Foster Dulles, Allen W. Dulles and Dr. Eleanor Dulles.

Both Allen W. Dulles and his sister were born in Watertown and while Secretary of State Dulles was a native of Washington, he also lived here in early life.